PHOTOGRAPHY, ONE-YEAR GENERAL CERTIFICATE

Curriculum Code #4111

Effective May 2025

Division of Arts and Humanities (http://catalog.lorainccc.edu/academic-programs/arts-humanities/)

The one-year certification in photography from the visual arts department represents the successful completion of select courses in art, photography, design and digital art that prepares individuals to design, create and produce traditional and digital solutions for a variety of contexts including websites, print media and fine art. Successful completion of this certificate prepares the student for employment in the area of photographic production, or for further study in art, photography or design. Certification is well-suited for individuals with professional experience seeking to add to their skill set. Lorain County Community College has articulation agreements with colleges and universities including programs offered by Lorain County Community College's University Partnership. The course work also helps prepare the student in the development of a portfolio (for work or transfer). National Association of Schools of Art and Design plan approval 2016.
