

FINANCE (FNCE)

FNCE 111, REAL ESTATE PRINCIPLES & PRACTICES 3 (3)

This course familiarizes each student with the principles and practices of the real estate business through study of the nature, importance, and character of land; the real estate market; financing; property ownership; stages in the real estate transaction and appraisal, escrow, and title work. Special attention will be given to fair housing, civil rights and ethics. This course partially fulfills the Ohio Department of Real Estate's requirements to sit for the sales examination.

General Education: IN1, IN2, IN4

Typically Offered: Summer, Fall and Spring Semesters

FNCE 112, REAL ESTATE LAW 3 (3)

This course provides the foundation for understanding the legal implications embodied in real estate transactions, contracts, and other relationships. Ohio (local, municipal, and state) real estate law, as well as federal civil rights laws are studied. Land ownership, its components, rights, responsibilities, transfer, and limitations are reviewed within the context of the sales transaction along with the contracts, deeds, and closing the title for the property. Specific attention is given to case law pertaining to housing discrimination, segregation issues, and eliminating the effects of prior discrimination. Course also covers agency law and landlord tenant arrangements. Course partially fulfills the Ohio Department of Real Estate's requirements to sit for the sales examination.

General Education: IN1, IN2, IN4

FNCE 113, REAL ESTATE FINANCE 2 (2.5)

The institutions, methods, instruments, and procedures involved in the financing of real estate, the nature and characteristics of mortgage loans, government influence on real estate finance, and the nature of the mortgage market. Course partially fulfills the Ohio Department of Real Estate's requirements to sit for the sales examination.

General Education: IN1, IN2, IN4

FNCE 114, REAL ESTATE APPRAISAL 2 (2.5)

Appraisal as it applies to single and double family dwellings. Factors in a property appraisal, which affect value, are studied. The following approaches to property valuation are covered: the Sales Comparison Approach, Cost Approach, and Income Capitalization Approach, along with the use of appraisal techniques to derive opinions of value for subject properties. This course fulfills part of the requirements of the Ohio Division of Real Estate to sit for the sales examination. (A special fee is assessed to sit for the state exam.)

General Education: IN1, IN2, IN4

FNCE 121, PRINCIPLES OF INSURANCE 3 (3)

This course provides an overview of the insurance business and the employment opportunities in the insurance industry. Key topics addressed in this course include principles of property and casualty insurance, as well as commercial and personal insurance. This course acts as a first course in insurance, which builds upon the Introduction to Management course, to provide a perspective of the industry in order for students to determine if they would like to pursue employment in one of the various insurance fields. Completion of this course prepares students to sit for an Ohio Insurance Licensure exam.
